

GENERAL PRIVACY NOTICE For Staff, Councillors and Volunteers

'Staff' means employees, workers, agency staff and those retained on a temporary or permanent basis. This privacy notice includes, volunteers, contractors, agents and other role holders within the Council including former staff* and former Councillors. This also includes applicants or candidates for any of these roles.

Your personal data – what is it?

'Personal data' is any information about a living individual which allows them to be identified from that data (for example a name, photograph, video, email address or address). Identification can be directly using the data itself or by combining it with other information which helps to identify a living individual (e.g. a list of staff may contain personnel ID numbers rather than names but if you use a separate list of the ID numbers which give the corresponding names to identify the staff in the first list then the first list will also be treated as personal data). The processing of personal data is governed by legislation relating to personal data which applies in the United Kingdom including the General Data Protection Regulation (the 'GDPR') and other legislation relating to personal data and rights such as the Human Rights Act.

Who are we?

This Privacy Notice is provided to you by Brinsworth Parish Council which is the data controller for your data.

The council works together with:

- Other data controllers, such as local authorities, public authorities, central government and agencies such as HMRC and DVLA
- Staff pension providers
- Former and prospective employers
- DBS services suppliers
- Payroll services providers
- Recruitment Agencies
- Credit reference agencies

We may need to share personal data we hold with them so that they can carry out their responsibilities to the Council and our community. The organisations referred to above will sometimes be 'joint data controllers'. This means we are all responsible to you for how we process your data where for example two or more data controllers are working together for a joint purpose. If there is no joint purpose or collaboration, then the data controllers will be independent and will be individually responsible to you.

The Council will comply with data protection law. This says that the personal data we hold about you must be:

- Used lawfully, fairly and in a transparent way;
- Collected only for valid purposes that we have clearly explained to you and not used in any way that is incompatible with those purposes;
- Relevant to the purposes we have told you about and limited only to those purposes;
- Accurate and kept up to date;
- Kept only as long as necessary for the purposes we have told you about;
- Kept and destroyed securely including ensuring that appropriate technical and security measures are in place to protect your personal data to protect personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure.

What data do we process?

- Names, titles, and aliases, photographs;
- Start date/leaving date;
- Contact details such as telephone numbers, addresses, and email addresses;
- Where they are relevant to our legal obligations, or where you provide them to us, we may process information such as gender, age, date of birth, marital status, nationality, education/work history, academic/professional qualifications, employment details, hobbies, family composition, and dependants;
- Non-financial identifiers such as passport numbers, driving licence numbers, vehicle registration numbers, taxpayer identification numbers, staff identification numbers, tax reference codes, and national insurance numbers;
- Financial identifiers such as bank account numbers, payment card numbers, payment/transaction identifiers, policy numbers, and claim numbers;

- Financial information such as National Insurance Number, pay and pay records, tax code, tax and benefits contributions, expenses claimed;
- Other operational personal data created, obtained, or otherwise processed in the course of carrying out our activities, including but not limited to, CCTV footage, recordings of telephone conversations, IP addresses and website visit histories, logs of visitors, and logs of accidents, injuries and insurance claims;
- Next of kin and emergency contact information;
- Recruitment information (including copies of right to work documentation, references and other information included in a CV or cover letter or as part of the application process and referral source (e.g. agency, staff referral));
- Location of employment or workplace;
- Other staff data (not covered above) including level, performance management information, languages and proficiency, licences/certificates, immigration status, employment status, information for disciplinary and grievance proceedings, and personal biographies.
- CCTV footage and other information obtained through electronic means such as swipecard records;
- Information about your use of our information and communications systems.

We use your personal data for some or all of the following purposes: -

Please note: We need all the categories of personal data in the list above primarily to allow us to perform our contract with you and to enable us to comply with legal obligations.

- Making a decision about your recruitment or appointment;
- Determining the terms on which you work for us;
- Checking you are legally entitled to work in the UK;
- Paying you and, if you are an employee, deducting tax and National Insurance contributions;
- Providing any contractual benefits to you;
- Liaising with your pension provider;
- Administering the contract, we have entered into with you;
- Management and planning, including accounting and auditing;
- Conducting performance reviews, managing performance and determining performance requirements;
- Making decisions about salary reviews and compensation;
- Assessing qualifications for a particular job or task, including decisions about promotions;
- Conducting grievance or disciplinary proceedings;
- Making decisions about your continued employment or engagement;
- Making arrangements for the termination of our working relationship;
- Education, training and development requirements;
- Dealing with legal disputes involving you, including accidents at work;
- Ascertaining your fitness to work;
- Managing sickness absence;
- Complying with health and safety obligations;
- To prevent fraud;
- To monitor your use of our information and communication systems to ensure compliance with our IT policies;
- To ensure network and information security, including preventing unauthorised access to our computer and electronic communications systems and preventing malicious software distribution;
- To conduct data analytics studies to review and better understand employee retention and attrition rates;
- Equal opportunities monitoring;
- To undertake activity consistent with our statutory functions and powers including any delegated functions;
- To maintain our own accounts and records;
- To seek your views or comments;
- To process a job application;
- To administer Councillors' interests;
- To provide a reference.

Our processing may also include the use of CCTV systems for monitoring purposes.

Some of the above grounds for processing will overlap and there may be several grounds which justify our use of your personal data.

We will only use your personal data when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we will use your personal data in the following circumstances:

- Where we need to perform the contract, we have entered into with you;
- Where we need to comply with a legal obligation.

We may also use your personal data in the following situations, which are likely to be rare:

- Where we need to protect your interests (or someone else's interests);
- Where it is needed in the public interest (or for official purposes).

How we use sensitive personal data

- We may process sensitive personal data relating to staff, councillors and role holders including, as appropriate:
 - Information about your physical or mental health or condition in order to monitor sick leave and take decisions on your fitness for work;
 - Your racial or ethnic origin or religious or similar information in order to monitor compliance with equal opportunities legislation;
 - In order to comply with legal requirements and obligations to third parties.
- These types of data are described in the GDPR as 'special categories of data' and require higher levels of protection. We need to have further justification for collecting, storing and using this type of personal data.
- We may process special categories of personal data in the following circumstances:
 - In limited circumstances, with your explicit written consent;
 - Where we need to carry out our legal obligations;
 - Where it is needed in the public interest, such as for equal opportunities monitoring or in relation to our pension scheme;
 - Where it is needed to assess your working capacity on health grounds, subject to appropriate confidentiality safeguards.
- Less commonly, we may process this type of personal data where it is needed in relation to legal claims or where it is needed to protect your interests (or someone else's interests) and you are not capable of giving your consent, or where you have already made the information public.

Do we need your consent to process your sensitive personal data?

- We do not need your consent if we use your sensitive personal data in accordance with our rights and obligations in the field of employment and social security law;
- In limited circumstances, we may approach you for your written consent to allow us to process certain sensitive personal data. If we do so, we will provide you with full details of the personal data that we would like and the reason we need it, so that you can carefully consider whether you wish to consent;
- You should be aware that it is not a condition of your contract with us that you agree to any request for consent from us.
